Affiliation confirmed

Dear [redacted]

Thank you for your affiliation.

As your institution has an agreement with Springer Nature, the article-processing charge (APC) for your article may be partially or fully covered.

Dresden Technical University

Your article open access – covered by the German DEAL agreement

You are affiliated with Dresden Technical University which enables you to publish open access with fees covered by the German DEAL agreement.

Information on the agreement between Springer Nature and Projekt DEAL can be found at www.springernature.com/oaforgermany

Please note: The institution you selected will verify your eligibility based on your affiliation as corresponding author. For cost allocation purposes, this affiliation should be indicated consistently throughout the process. Please ensure that this affiliation will be stated in the published article.

*Please note: in DEAL-contracts the so-called hybrid model in Wiley-DEAL and SpringerNature-DEAL are full OpenAccess-articles and those fees are covered thus there are no additional fees for OpenAccess there, so please always vote the OpenAccess-option as default there! see also DEAL explained: A-Z, our page Open Access in SN and DEAL-FAQ for authors \(Will the publisher charge open access publication fees to authors?\)
